

ENTREPRENEURSHIP LEADERSHIP ACCELERATOR TEEN LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

YOU ARE INVITED TO APPLY FOR THE ONE-DAY ELA™ WORKSHOP!

The ELA™ one-day workshop will provide high school students with the opportunity to explore and identify their strengths, have better understanding of different career paths they may pursue, and learn about college application and its challenges. In addition, participants will have a class on communication skills to learn how to better present their ideas to different audiences.

We are recruiting students from different communities and selected students will participate in the following activities, at no cost:

- 8:30 - 9:00 Opening remarks
- 9:00 - 11:00 Strengths Workshop mediated by Gillian Simkiss, Professional Development Manager at Harvard Medical School
- 11:00 - 12:00 College Application Conversation
- 12:00 - 1:00 Lunch at Bentley Cafeteria
- 1:00 - 2:00 College Application Conversation
- 2:00 - 3:00 College Essay
- 3:00 - 5:00 Public Speaking & Communication with Harvard Professor Michael McCarthy
- 5:00 - 5:30 Closing remarks

The ELA™ program is a 14-day boot summer camp that provides opportunities for students to learn and exercise critical thinking, problem-solving, collaboration, creativity, and develop entrepreneurial mindset.
